

LIPID Study 20th Anniversary Meeting

26th October 2018 12-5pm Sydney University

Preliminary Program

11:00am	Media
12:00pm	Registration (Lunch provided)
1:00pm	Welcome Andrew Tonkin
1:05pm	LIPID: a cause for celebration Malcolm West
1:10pm	Genesis of LIPID: untold stories
1:25pm	Insights from LIPID in trial design and management: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- DSMBs and trial conduct in light of new evidence- value of substudies: what have we learnt- cost-effectiveness of statins and return on investment of LIPID
2:25pm	Key findings from LIPID and statin trials: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- long-term effectiveness and safety- lipid-modifying therapy: the changing landscape since LIPID
2.55pm	Afternoon Tea
3:25pm	LIPID Biomarker Studies: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- how to get the most from 'liquid gold' blood samples- major findings guiding future research and practice
4:10pm	Ongoing and future directions: there is still more to learn Audience participation Engagement young Researchers and strategic collaborations
6:00pm	Dinner ($80 per person)

